DRY GOODS BULLETIN.

CARPET DEPARTMENT.

The great success of our Carnet Department is due to the fact that great care is manifested in the si-lection of just such goods that are necessary to meet the require-ments of our trade.

Our Bayer, knowing full well, from his long experience, what is necessary, visits the manufacturers and from their productions culls the choicest and most desirable patterns. This department, though established but a few years, is the most successful in the South. stock represents every grade of Carpels, Rugs, Mats. GREAT CARPET TRADE SALES

An idea prevails among some people that the best patterns and varieties of Carpets do not find their way to

TRADE AUCTION ROOMS.

This is an error that requires correction. It has been for several years the custom of certain manufacturers to dispose of their entire productions at public sales, where only extensive purchasers are accustomed to congregate, at racted by the immensity of the stock and the variety of the a sortment, Leading Carpet Houses, where business justifies them, have representatives at such sales who pur-chase liberally such fabrics as their rade requires at fully 25 per cent. less than regular prices. These purchases rebound to the benefit of the consumer. Thus the dealer and customer alike evjoy the fruits of these timely offerings. In the interest of all who contemplate furnishing a home or purchasing a carpet, we would say, call and examine our immerse stock and earn our prices.

PLUMBING, GAS AND STEAM-FITTING AND SUPPLIES. J. W. X. Browne, No. 254 Second

Street. The already large and constantly increasing demand for thorough and eaultary plumbing has necessitated the carrying of Free stocks of supplies in the latest and most ap-proved styles of bath tubs, washstands, water closets, traps, cocks, valves, etc., as well as the employ-ment of a large force of the most ski led and reliable workmen, in order to execute promptly the orders for this work, and "Browne, the Plamber," is prepared to fully supply the wants of the city and surrounding country. It is not necessary, or even profitable, to go elsewhere for plumbing work, or for the lines in which Browne is en-geged—that is the furnishing of gas and steam pipes, cacky, valves, inspiand steam pipes, cocks, valves, inspirators, steam pumps, fittings and engine trimmings for the country and city trade—which is carried in large quantities and all sizes, from six inch pipe and fittings down to the emallest sizes, and in order to fill the orders of the jobbing trade as well as mills and factories promptly and in the best manner. Mr. Browne as well as mills and factories promptly and in the best manner, Mr. Browne has recently added steam power in his establishment with capacity for catting and threading pipes from the smallest ties up to and including eight inches in diameter, which as the capacity of this inches in the capacity of this largest

In the gas fixture line the largest stock and most varied selection of newest designs are to be found here, and at prices as low as in the Eastern markets. It may be proper to say here that this house is now the oldest and most successful in this line in the city of Memphis, and it will prove to the interest of all to place their orders with J. W. X. Adam 18th: We learn that Mr. Henry F. Walsh is a Democratic candidate for the State Legislature. He is a gentleman possessed of some fine abilities. He received a college education and graduated with honors. Since he came to Memphis he bas been busy and indus-trious. His education and talents at once secured for him employment in the county offices. As Deputy Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court he has acquitted himself most creditably. He is a nephew of Mr. John Walsh, a gentleman of tried integrity and finan-cial worth, and one whose past ser-vices to the Democratic party have been very valuable.
